

Overview of measures against the economic impact of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak

After the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic and the decision of most governments in Europe (as well as other continents) to prioritise “social distancing”, it immediately became clear that these decisions will have a significant impact on the global economy. All governments are reflecting how to support self-employed, solo-entrepreneurs, SMEs on to mid-caps and globally-acting conglomerates, airports and healthcare systems as well as companies in the fields of export, tourism and in many other areas. European Member States also introduced completely new measures with the Maastricht criteria becoming less of a priority.

EU Member States quickly began designing an appropriate answer to the challenges ahead – with each country customising their specific needs whilst basing themselves on existing structures. National Promotional Banks and Institutions as well as guarantee institutions are providing support to companies within their respective countries. The overall economic public policy goal that no job be lost due to the current crisis, and that no company should become bankrupt due to the liquidity problems caused by this crisis has been backed by the public budget. The actors who are members of:

AECM - European Association of Guarantee Institutions www.aecm.eu

ELTI - European Association of Long-Term Investors www.eltia.eu and

are transferring public budget into financial instruments in order to provide support to their customers.

By observing the enclosed table, the reader should receive a wide overview of all the available instruments within Europe. The data collected is based on members’ contributions and contains all instruments and measures implemented or under preparation. The table is updated as soon as the secretariats receive a new contribution, sometimes 2 or 3 times within the same day. The reader can find an indication of targeted sectors and undertakings along with the membership of each actor. Today, we are still unable to predict until when these updates will bring added value to members, governments, EU institutions and other stakeholders. We expect that most of the instruments will be implemented very soon since support is urgently required. We may switch the updates to a more regular (weekly, monthly) basis in a few weeks’ time.

If you have questions or remarks, we are happy to give further information as far as we are aware. We ask that you please come back to the associations whose contact details you can find on their respective web pages.

No risk-assessment is carried out by the on-lending banks. The maximum amount of the loan is € 500 000 for companies with up to 50 employees and € 800 000 for companies with 51-249 employees, capped at three monthly turnovers of the company. The loan is available to companies that have been on the market since at least 1 January 2019 and that were not in financial difficulties by 31 December 2019. The loan can be used for investments and working capital only. As of 8/5/2020 KfW will lower the interest rate for our existing student-loan temporarily to 0% until 31/3/2021. The temporarily lowered interest rate also applies for new loans. As of 1/6/2020 the availability of the student-loan will be extended to foreign students in German tertiary education. As of 14/5/2020 the KfW subsidiary KfW Capital offers the Corona Matching Facility to support Start-Ups and young, growing companies. The Facility matches equity financing by private Venture-Capital Funds into Start-Ups with a share of up to 50% per investment. This offers additional liquidity to promising Start-Ups which are struggling due to the Corona Crisis.

		As of 8/6/2020 KfW also offers global loans to the German regional promotional institutes (Landesförderinstitute) who directly support Start-Ups which do not have access to Venture Capital Funds. 		Guarantiqa runs the so-called Guarantiqa Crisis Guarantee Program. Under the Program, domestic SMEs and large companies can obtain funds with a 90% state guarantee to ensure their liquidity. The program, announced in the first round by the end of the year, aims to help non-financial companies in difficulty due to the economic processes associated with the spread of the COVID-19 virus in the period starting on 1 January 2020 to restore or maintain their viability. Under the program, micro, small and medium-sized enterprises, as well as large companies can use the 90% state guarantee for their overdrafts, working capital and investment loans. The new guarantee program thus contributes to solving the liquidity problems of enterprises, preserving domestic jobs, and also supports the encouragement of development activities. The maximum amount of loans used under the Guarantiqa Crisis Guarantee Program may not exceed twice the cost of annual wages and contributions paid by the Company, or 25 percent of their 2019 sales revenue. However, in justified cases, financing may be provided to the extent of the 18-month liquidity needs of the borrowing SME or to the 12-month liquidity needs of the large borrowing company. The maximum amount of a guarantee given to one debtor can reach up to HUF 5 billion, which can be a great help even for large companies in obtaining credit. The terms and conditions of the state-guaranteed loan guarantee available under the Guarantiqa Crisis Guarantee Program are extremely favorable: the annual fee to be paid by the borrower is 0.25-1 percent for SMEs, depending on the term, and the state fee subsidy for the scheme is 1 percent. The fees to be paid by large companies are twice the fees of SMEs.

		economic and financial dynamics immediately ahead of us are approaching a tipping point: we have very little time left to put in place any measures to safeguard the European economy from this unprecedented shock. The EIB Group is creating a Pan-European Guarantee Fund (EGF) in response to COVID-19 of up to €25 billion. This guarantee fund will enable the EIB Group – in partnership with local lenders and national promotional institutions – to scale up its support to SMEs, mid-caps and corporates in the real economy by mobilising up to €200 billion, in addition to the support package announced already. How will the guarantee fund work The EGF will be funded by the EU Member States on pro-rata of their shareholding in the EIB Capital. Thanks to the guarantee, the EIB Group will be able to provide existing products to local banks and other financial intermediaries, who are in close contact with businesses in all Member States and can unlock financing to the real economy, without risking financial instability. The guarantee will support different types of operations of the European Investment Bank, and its subsidiary, the European Investment Fund: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Guarantee instruments to commercial banks and national promotional institutions

		<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Guarantees to national guarantee schemes• Counter-guarantees to national promotional institutions• Support for SMEs and mid-caps funded by venture capital funds• Purchases of asset-backed securities from banks, so they can provide more new loans to SMEs• Venture debt to high-growth companies, including companies active in the pharmaceutical sector By guaranteeing parts of portfolios, our operations under the guarantee fund will free up capital for the financial intermediaries involved to make more financing available for SMEs and mid-caps. Thus, we have calculated that up to €200 billion will become available. The guarantee fund will provide guarantees to the EIB and EIF to reimburse any possible losses incurred for included operations. By pooling credit risk across all of the European Union, the overall average cost of the fund will be significantly reduced, compared to national schemes. The use of the EIB also means that all participating Member States will benefit from the sharing of the bank's top-level credit rating. Who can benefit? The EGF is designed to primarily support businesses, with a focus on SMEs, in EU Member States that are high-risk but viable in the long-term and, in the absence of the COVID-19 pandemic, would

		meet a lender's or other financial intermediaries' requirements for commercial financing. How, where and when can companies apply for these funds? Most of the financing will be made available through financial intermediaries in all the EU countries; that means either through commercial banks or National Promotional Institutions. Once the funds are available, companies can file requests with the participating banks and intermediaries. This list will be available on www.eib.org A majority of the funding made available will likely be requested by companies in the hardest-hit member states and most heavily affected sectors. The EIB Group does not have country quotas, yet a balanced allocation across participating Member States shall be the goal. The EIB Group is working very hard for the funds to become available as soon as possible and is fast-tracking the decision-making process. In line with the conclusions of the European Council, the fund, as part of the wider European package, should be operational in 1 June 2020. Additional support measures The European Investment Bank has previously announced a set of measures intended to mobilise up to €40 billion to the impacted SMEs. Some of this has been made possible with the help of guarantees by the European Commission. These measures are currently being deployed.

		Additionally, the EIB Group has €6 billion available for investments in the healthcare sector. This is available for medical infrastructure, further research, or other vaccine- and cure-related financing. Since the EIB Group would finance or guarantee parts of projects, it is expected that this €6 billion would mobilise an even higher figure in supported investments. Additional funding could go to healthcare infrastructure, further research or financing for vaccines and cures. We are also working on making another €5 billion available for coronavirus support to countries outside the EU - both to support healthcare infrastructure, as well as to maintain access to finance for impacted SMEs. A green and sustainable recovery The EIB Group remains open for business while taking good care of its employees and business partners. Both the EIB and EIF closely monitor the economic impact of the COVID-19 crisis on their portfolio and the operations of their underlying companies. We stand ready to rigorously support investment in a green and sustainable recovery for Europe as soon as the worst of the COVID-19 crisis is over. An immediate response to the crisis To counteract this unprecedented shock, the EIB Group has proposed a financing package that will go towards bridging loans, credit holidays and other measures designed to alleviate liquidity and working capital constraints for SMEs and mid-caps. The EIB

		Group, including the European Investment Fund, which specialises in support for SMEs, will work through financial intermediaries in the Member States and in partnership with national promotional banks. The financing package consists of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dedicated guarantee schemes based on existing programmes for immediate deployment. A €1 billion guarantee tranche will mobilise up to €8 billion of SME financing.• Dedicated liquidity lines to banks to ensure additional working capital support for SMEs and mid-caps of €10 billion;• Dedicated asset-backed securities (ABS) purchasing programmes to allow banks to transfer risk on portfolios of SME loans, mobilising another €10 billion of support. All these actions can be implemented quickly to ease liquidity shortages and will be executed in partnership with national promotional banks wherever feasible. A comprehensive response to the pandemic outside the EU The EIB Group has announced details of a comprehensive response to the coronavirus pandemic outside the EU that will provide up to €5.2 billion in the coming months. This financing is part of the Team Europe response and supported by guarantees from the EU budget. It will both strengthen urgent health investment and accelerate long-standing support for private sector investment

This new partnership will help increase resilience to reduce the health and social impact of future health emergencies. The Bank also joined the EU-led global Pledging Conference, a fundraising event aiming to raise an initial €7.5 billion to end the pandemic. Our support in a nutshell: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Accelerated financing and targeted technical assistance for partners in 100 countries as part of the Team Europe response package
