

Nikolaos Tritaris

Nikolaos is an economist with more than 20 years of active involvement in the design and implementation of financial instruments in the EU. Prior a member of the board of AECM whilst serving as managing director of the Hellenic guarantee fund for SMEs, he has also held diverse roles in institutions such as PwC, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and the European Investment Bank. For the past 5 years, Nikolaos is part of the EIB Advisory department where he provides advisory support to intermediaries in the context of financial instruments and the deployment of EIB green financing operations.